Dr. Patricia Shaw

“Educating and Empowering Women to Achieve their Ultimate Goal.”

Introduction

It is with great pleasure that the management of Women of Excellence Outreach Ministry, Inc. is pleased to present you this business letter with the aim of entering into a business partnership with you.

We understand the imperative need of guidance, motivation and development of young women and especially during their college years on key issues plaguing society at large.

We recognize the uniqueness of females and their awareness of life-changing decisions such as sexual promiscuity, relationships, commitment, marriage readiness, and how their beliefs on these subject matters play a vital part in their understanding of these issues.

Dr. Patricia Shaw is set to provide germane knowledge pertaining to sexuality, domestic violence, date rape and sexually transmitted diseases (H.I.V), and with this knowledge, she is certain to inculcate in them the need to have a strong sense in personal responsibility, as well as shunning vices that will bring about self-doubt or low self-esteem and foster the need to be committed to achieving their set goals.

Granted, this will be a great opportunity for us to impact the lives of the young women at your school not forgetting the educative and developmental importance of this great institution.

About Us

Women of Excellence Outreach Ministry, Inc. is an organization set out in providing and equipping women especially those within the age of 18-35, with tools, tips and techniques to reach their ultimate potential in life while remaining true to who they are. The ideas and vision behind this organization were conceived by Dr. Patricia Shaw in the year 2015. The founder is an astute and sagacious coach, author and speaker, whose quest for the development of women world-wide knows no bound, due to her experience and her ability to fight through it, she is overly oriented in advocating for the need of women to draw close to God.

Objectives & Service Delivery

As part of our mission statement, we seek to enlighten and educate young women on sexuality, domestic violence, STD's, self-esteem and other life-changing activities. This will in a great way influence their decisions, make them confident, be clear on their set goals and be committed to achieving them. We offer various service deliveries which are:

- A twelve-module (12) training program
- Workshops and Seminars
- Breakout sessions
- Guest class-room Lecturer

However, we can also customize our service delivery to suit your need.

Our Proposal

Given the above, we at this moment kindly request for you to give Dr. Patricia Shaw the opportunity of speaking to the young women under your charge by the method you deem viable which will be centered around teenage pregnancy, building confidence, STD’s and the effects of pre-marital sex, which is meant to not only enlighten them but also empower them to see the need of living a virtuous lifestyle.

Conclusion

We are confident that our proposed service will undoubtedly provide the necessary tools and techniques for women to discover themselves, and bring about positive change in our society. We are available to answer any questions you may have either virtually or in-person and look forward to discussing this opportunity further.

Thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

The WOE Management Team on behalf of
Dr. Patricia Shaw,
